THE BLACK BERET CODE OF DISCIPLINE

A cultural community of disciplined thinkers, creators, and leaders committed to protecting culture, advancing consciousness, and building generational power.

PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

1. Consciousness Over Complacency: Stay vigilant, informed, and dedicated to continuous growth and learning.
2. Creation Over Complaint: Build solutions, shape stories, and inspire progress through creative action.
3. Leadership Over Spectatorship: Take personal responsibility for the culture and community we build.
4. Mutual Support & Solidarity: Stand with brothers and sisters in struggle, celebrating every win and building generational strength.
5. Protection of Dignity & Culture: Honour African heritage, reclaim narratives, and maintain discipline in speech and conduct.

OUR DUTY

Our duty is to awaken our brothers and sisters, a new AFRICA is possible in our lifetime! Our duty is to build something new for us and the generations to come. Our duty is to remember who we are. Our duty is to BUILD our communities.

DECLARATION OF COMMITMENT

This is not fashion, this is duty! When you wear the Black Beret, you are declaring that you are awake, ready to have meaningful conversations, and ready to make a difference in your community.
